9.	Fixture Posters. April's have been produced and are out for delivery.
10.	Sponsor A Goal & 50/50 Cash exchanged hands between Paul and Sarah! 50/50: going well and raising more than the Golden goal and we want to improve it. Including: Bigger Poster. Have a table next to the Programme Hut. Cover the North East Turnstile if used as an entrance. Card reader discussed but not viable as the set	All to help!	All	Ongoing transaction fee will take most of the £1. Ange to send email to remind people to bring cash.

11.	Player of the Month/Season and Milestone Awards. Gordon provided an update and also photographs of the presentations. Trevor confirmed that Steve can arrange for Scott to produce the Player of the Season Award again. The Committee agreed that Trevor should ask Steve to take this forward. There was discussion regarding when a presentation might be held. No date confirmed as yet.	See Appendix B Trevor to ask Steve to arrange for the Player of the Season Award to be made.	All Trevor	22.5.23 22.5.23
12.	Worthing Football Club Management Team Update. Ange explained that a number of ground inspections had been carried out and that the Club now qualifies for Step 2. It has been an 8 months project over £50k and the Club gives a massive thank you to the WFCSA for their contribution. We now have 505 seats in the stand. This means that we now have a regulated stand (with additional statutory compliance requirements) but can enter the play-offs. The Club gives another massive thank you to the WFCSA for their contribution. Paul Crane has a new job with Sodexa at the Amex: a great step up for him. Interviews have taken place and an appointment is due soon. In the meantime, Phil and Nathan are covering the General manager post.
13.	Promoting the WFCSA. Including Rebel Yell, the WFC Programmes, use of email updates. The new batch of Tee Shirts are on the way.	Tee shirts to be sold at the next home game. Everyone to promote.	All	Ongoing
